

FEBRUARY DAYS AT FFG!

An invitation to our international community

In February, several events and lectures are offered in English, which is an opportunity for – and invitation to! – the international community around FFG (the Lutheran School of Theology in Gothenburg). For information on the February events, and registration: www.ffg.se/international

February 17–21: Doctrine and Liturgy of the Lord's Supper

Teacher: Dr. Naomichi Masaki, Concordia Theological Seminary

This is a week-long intensive-course on the Lord's Supper from a confessional Lutheran perspective in the Master of Sacred Theology-program. The whole STM-program is suitable both for those who wish to equip themselves for theological leadership in the church and for those planning to continue with studies for a doctoral degree. It is possible to apply for the whole program, or just this specific course. Forthcoming courses:

September 8-12 (preliminary): The Book of Revelation, Daniel Johansson

November 17–21 (preliminary): Justification, Roland Ziegler

A commencement ceremony for graduating STM-students takes place Sunday the 16th of February at 14.30. For information about the STM-program: www.ffg.se/master

February 21–22: Nicea 1700 years (AD 325–2025)

The two-day-long conference has lectures in English on Friday the 21st. Dr. Carl Beckwith teaches on the history and theology of the Council at Nicea 325, two lectures at 13.30–14.30 and 15.00–16.00. Beckwith is professor of historical theology at Concordia Theological Seminary, and a prominent Lutheran theologian on the doctrine and history of the Holy Trinity, and patristical theology in general. ### February 24–25: The Holy Trinity Today?

Teacher: Dr. Carl Beckwith, Concordia Theological Seminary

Two-day-long intensive course on the doctrine of the Holy Trinity with Dr. Carl Beckwith, professor of historical theology at Concordia Theological Seminary who does also teach at the Bible Conference February 21–22. This is a unique opportunity to listen to, and meet, the author of the volume on The Holy Trinity in the Confessional Lutheran Dogmatics series (Luther Academy, 2016), and discover some of the ancient and current, even pastoral, issues on the doctrine of the Trinity. The registration fee is 600 SEK for both days (coffee included). Register before February 17.
